

Ali. E. Q. H. A. Dashti (Ph.D)

Experience

---

1999-2001                                  Kuwait Oil Company                                  Ahmadi, Kuwait

Petroleum Engineer

- Develop and maintain West Kuwait oil fields
- Secretary of North Kuwait Project Kuwaitization committee

---

2001-present                                  Kuwait University                                  Shadadeyya, Kuwait

Assistant Professor

- Conduct research related to e-commerce and e-government disciplines within the IS field
- Review research papers submitted to JMIS journal and ICIS conference.
- Teach courses related to management information systems
- Participate at the different committees within QMIS department, College of Business Administration and Kuwait University.
- Hold supervisory position at CBA (e.g., QMIS Club Supervisor, Creativity and Innovation Center Directo).

Education

---

1995-1999                                  Colorado School of Mines                                  Golden, CO, USA

B.SC (Petroleum Engineering)

- Received Kuwait Embassy Academic Performance Merit Certificate
- Dean's and Honor List Student

2001-2003                                  Georgia State University                                  Atlanta, GA, USA

MBA (Computer Information Systems)

2003-2010                                  University of British Columbia                                  Vancouver, BC, Canada

Ph.D (Business Administration – Management Information Systems)

Publications and Conference Proceedings

---

- Dashti, A., Benbasat, I. and Burton-Jones, A. (2009). 'Developing Trust Reciprocity in Electronic Government: The Role of Felt Trust'. EMCIS 2009, Turkey (conference best paper award)
- Dashti, A., Benbasat, I., Burton-Jones, A. (2010). "Trust, Felt Trust, and E-Government Adoption: A Theoretical Perspective," Proceedings of JAIS Theory Development Workshop. ICIS 2010 SaInt Luis, Missouri, USA
- Dashti, A., Benbasat, I., and Al-Natour, S. (2008). "Trust Reciprocity: The Impact of Citizens' Felt Trust on Adoption of e-Government," EURAM 2008 8th Annual Conference: Managing Diversity: European Destiny and Hope, Ljubljana and Bled, Slovenia.
- Al-Rafee, S., and Dashti, A. (2012). "A Cross Cultural Comparison of the Extended TPB: The Case of Digital Piracy," Journal of Global Information Technology Management (15:1)